

Taste of success: Overall winner Cameron Hall finished in 27 minutes and 23 seconds

1500 take up the challenge

ARTHURS Seat Challenge organisers were delighted with the turnout at Sunday's event.

The challenge raised money and awareness for the Fit To Drive program, which teaches young people from the peninsula to become better drivers.

All proceeds will directly fund the year 11 driver education program, which is provided to every school on the peninsula. The weather was perfect during the event, which attracted almost 1500 participants.

They walked or ran the 7.6-kilometre challenge, from Rosebud pier to Seawinds Gardens, Arthurs Seat, as local schools provided entertainment.

Cameron Hall was the first male across the line on the day, with a time of 27 minutes and 23 seconds. He was followed by Robert Schwerkort and Ben Campbell.

Moorooduc physical education teacher Sarah Klein was the first woman to conquer the Arthurs Seat summit in a time of 30 minutes and 41 seconds, followed by Josie Carberry and Liz Limpens.
